Your MyCard Debit Card will function like a regular debit card and will be accepted wherever Visa debit transactions are accepted.

By requesting a MyCard Debit Card and submitting an image of your choice, you give Dade County FCU permission to use the image on the card and agree to indemnify, defend and hold Dade County FCU (including employees, partners, affiliates and contractors) harmless from and against any damages, loss, costs, expenses (including court costs and attorney's fees) incurred by or asserted against Dade County FCU caused directly or indirectly by the use of the image and this service.

BILL PAYMENT SERVICES

Terms and Conditions

SERVICE DEFINITIONS

“Service” means the Bill Payment Service offered by Dade County Federal Credit Union. “Agreement” means these Terms and Conditions of the bill payment and E-mail payment service. “Payee” is the person or entity to which you wish a bill payment or E-mail payment to be directed or is the person or entity from which you receive electronic bills or E-mail payments, as the case may be. “Payment Instruction” is the information provided by you to the Service for a bill payment or E-mail payment to be made to the Payee (such as, but not limited to, Payee name, Payee account number, and Scheduled Payment Date). “Payment Account” is the checking account from which bill payments or E-mail payments will be debited. “Billing Account” is the checking account from which all Service fees will be automatically debited. “Business Day” is every Monday through Friday, excluding Federal Reserve holidays. “Scheduled Payment Date” is the day you want your Payee to receive your bill payment and is also (other than for a laser draft payment) the day your Payment Account will be debited, unless the Scheduled Payment Date falls on a non-Business Day in which case it will be considered to be the previous Business Day. “Due Date” is the date reflected on your Payee statement for which the payment is due. It is not the late date or grace period. “Scheduled Payment” is a payment that has been scheduled through the Service but has not begun processing.

BILL PAYMENT SCHEDULING

Transactions begin processing four (4) Business Days prior to your Scheduled Payment Date. Therefore, the application will not permit you to select a Scheduled Payment Date less than four (4) Business Days from the current date. When scheduling payments you must select a Scheduled Payment Date that is no later than the actual Due Date reflected on your Payee statement unless the Due Date falls on a non-Business Day. If the actual Due Date falls on a non-Business Day, you must select a Scheduled Payment Date that is at least one (1) Business Day before the actual Due Date. Scheduled Payment Dates should be prior to any late date or grace period.

THE SERVICE GUARANTEE

Due to circumstances beyond the control of the Service, particularly delays in handling and posting payments by Payees or financial institutions, some transactions may take longer to be credited to your account. The Service will bear responsibility for any late payment related charges up to $50.00 should a payment post after its Due Date as long as the payment was scheduled in accordance with the guidelines described under "Bill Payment Scheduling" in this Agreement.

PAYMENT AUTHORIZATION AND PAYMENT REMITTANCE

By providing the Service with names and account information of Payees to whom you wish to direct payments, you authorize the Service to follow the Payment Instructions that it receives through the payment system. In order to process payments more efficiently and effectively, the Service may edit or alter payment data or data formats in accordance with Payee directives. When the Service receives a Payment Instruction, you authorize the Service to debit your Payment Account and remit funds on your behalf so that the funds arrive as close as reasonably possible to the Scheduled Payment Date designated by you. You also authorize the Service to credit your Payment Account for payments returned to the Service by the United States Postal Service or Payee, or payments remitted to you on behalf of another authorized user of the Service. The Service will use its best efforts to make all your payments properly. However, the Service shall incur no liability and any Service Guarantee shall be void if the Service is unable to complete any payments initiated by you because of the existence of any one or more of the following circumstances:

If, through no fault of the Service, your Payment Account does not contain sufficient funds to complete the transaction or the transaction would exceed the credit limit of your overdraft account;

The payment processing center is not working properly and you know or have been advised by the Service about the malfunction before you execute the transaction;

You have not provided the Service with the correct Payment Account information, or the correct name, address, phone number, or account information for the Payee; and/or,

Circumstances beyond control of the Service (such as, but not limited to, fire, flood, or interference from an outside force) prevent the proper execution of the transaction and the Service has taken reasonable precautions to avoid those circumstances.

Provided none of the foregoing exceptions are applicable, if the Service causes an incorrect amount of funds to be removed from your Payment Account or causes funds from your Payment Account to be directed to a Payee which does not comply with your Payment Instructions, the Service shall be responsible for returning the improperly transferred funds to your Payment Account, and for directing to the proper Payee any previously misdirected transactions, and, if applicable, for any late payment related charges.

E-MAIL PAYMENTS

The following applies to your use of the E-mail payment functionality of the Service. This functionality allows you to make payments from your Payment Account to any other account enrolled in this Service. If you choose to utilize this functionality you also agree to the following:

Information provided to the Service – You agree to provide true and accurate enrollment information to the Service, and to maintain and promptly update your information as applicable. You agree not to impersonate any person or use a name that you are not authorized to use.

Activation limitations – You must be at least eighteen (18) years of age to enroll in the Service. You must be a resident of the United States or its possessions, and use the Service for individual purposes only, not on behalf of any business, corporation, proprietorship or other entity. You must have a valid E-mail address and access to the Internet. You must be a legal owner of the Payment Account registered for the Service. We reserve the right to limit the number of memberships you have with the Service.

Transaction limitations – The Service will not process any payments less than $1.00 or greater than $2,000. You will be assigned a transactional limit, a daily limit and a weekly limit at enrollment based on parameters associated with your credit history. You agree to accept the limits set by the Service. We reserve the right to limit the amount you may have debited from or credited to your Payment Account on any given day and/or week. Additionally, the Service reserves the right to limit your use of this functionality by imposing limits, hold times, or other measures should we believe that suspicious activity has occurred or may occur. You authorize the Service to check your credit history at enrollment and to obtain follow-up credit reports on you. Information obtained will be used by the Service to verify the information you provide to the Service and to set limits associated with your use of the Service. The Service reserves the right to verify any of the information you provide.

The Service shall have the right to terminate your membership, reject or reverse any transactions you initiate, and/or restrict or condition your right to send or receive money at any time and for any reason, including, but not limited to: A. Excessive use; B. Using the Service (directly or indirectly) for any unlawful purpose; and/or C. Tampering, hacking, modifying or otherwise attempting to corrupt the security or functionality of the Service.

Sending and receiving payments – When the Service receives a Payment Instruction, you authorize the Service to debit your Payment Account and remit funds on your behalf to the Payee's account. E-mail payments begin processing the Business Day the Payment Instruction is submitted to the Service. Any E-mail payment submitted on a non-Business Day will begin processing on the next Business Day. The Service reserves the right to hold funds beyond the standard distribution periods for any transactions it deems necessary. The recipient's ability to access these funds is at the sole discretion of the recipient's financial institution and is not controlled by the Service. You acknowledge that once money is delivered to the recipient, the transaction is non-reversible and non-refundable to you. Credits to and debits from your Payment Account are only processed on Business Days. If we learn that you had insufficient funds in the Payment Account from which you requested we send money, we will cancel the payment. If we learn this after the money has been delivered to the recipient, you will owe us and agree to promptly repay the amount of the shortfall. We may apply funds awaiting receipt by you against the amount you owe us. In addition, we may not permit recipients of your outstanding payment requests to receive the money, and we will not refund transaction fees in these situations. With respect to any transaction, the Service reserves the right to seek reimbursement from a recipient if we receive any type of chargeback related to any Payment Instructions. We may obtain such reimbursement by deducting the charge-back amount from the recipient's account(s), reversing any credit(s) to the recipient's Payment Account, or by seeking such reimbursement from the recipient by any other lawful means.

Non-Delivery of E-mail payments – It is your sole responsibility to provide the correct E-mail address(s) for an individual(s) to whom we send money on your behalf. THE SERVICE IS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR PAYMENTS MADE TO UNINTENDED RECIPIENTS DUE TO THE INPUT OF INCORRECT INFORMATION BY YOU, NOR SHALL THE SERVICE BE RESPONSIBLE FOR VERIFICATION OF THE IDENTITY OF RECIPIENTS.

Accuracy and dispute of E-mail payments – We are not responsible for determining whether the amount of money being sent is correct for any underlying transaction or is actually owed to the recipient. Any dispute that may arise between you and the recipient relating to a payment made or received, or any other aspect of a transaction between you and the recipient, is not the responsibility of the Service. We make no guarantees regarding purchases paid for via the Service. You acknowledge that the Service does not ensure the quality, safety or legality of any merchandise received, nor that a seller will even ship merchandise. You agree to hold the Service harmless for any loss or expense you incur as a result of such purchases or disputes.

Cancellation of E-mail payment(s) – Once initiated, payments cannot be canceled. Once the money is delivered to the recipient, the transaction is non-reversible and non-refundable to you. However, you may cancel an invitation to send money if it has not yet been received by the recipient. After you initiate a payment, if the recipient is not already enrolled in the Service, the Service will periodically send reminder E-mails to you and the recipient until the recipient has enrolled in the Service and received the payment. If the recipient has not enrolled in the Service and received the payment forty-five (45) days after initiation, the Service will cancel the payment.

PAYMENT METHODS

The Service reserves the right to select the method in which to remit funds on your behalf to your Payee. These payment methods may include, but may not be limited to, an electronic payment, an electronic to check payment or a laser draft payment.

PAYMENT CANCELLATION REQUESTS

You may cancel or edit any Scheduled Payment (including recurring payments) by following the directions within the application. There is no charge for canceling or editing a Scheduled Payment. Once the Service has begun processing a payment it cannot be canceled or edited, therefore a stop payment request must be submitted.

STOP PAYMENT REQUESTS

The Service's ability to process a stop payment request will depend on the payment method and whether or not a check has cleared. The Service may also not have a reasonable opportunity to act on any stop payment request after a payment has been processed. If you desire to stop any payment that has already been processed, you must contact Customer Service. Although the Service will make every effort to accommodate your request, the Service will have no liability for failing to do so. The Service may also require you to present your request in writing within fourteen (14) days. The charge for each stop payment request will be the current charge for such service as set out in the applicable fee schedule.

PROHIBITED PAYMENTS

Payments to Payees outside of the United States or its territories are prohibited through the Service.

EXCEPTION PAYMENTS

Tax payments and court ordered payments may be scheduled through the Service; however, such payments are discouraged and must be scheduled at your own risk. In no event shall the Service be liable for any claims or damages resulting from your scheduling of these types of payments. The Service Guarantee as it applies to any late payment related changes is void when these types of payments are scheduled and/or processed by the Service. The Service has no obligation to research or resolve any claim resulting from an exception payment. All research and resolution for any misapplied, posted incorrectly or misdirected payments will be the sole responsibility of you and not of the Service.

Notification – The Service will use its best efforts to present all of your electronic bills promptly. In addition to notification within the Service, the Service may send an E-mail notification to the E-mail address listed for your account. It is your sole responsibility to ensure that this information is accurate. In the event you do not receive notification, it is your responsibility to periodically logon to the Service and check on the delivery of new electronic bills. The time for notification may vary from Payee to Payee. You are responsible for ensuring timely payment of all bills.

Cancellation of electronic bill notification – The electronic Payee reserves the right to cancel the presentment of electronic bills at any time. You may cancel electronic bill presentment at any time. The timeframe for cancellation of your electronic bill presentment may vary from Payee to Payee. The Service will not be responsible for presenting any electronic bills that are already in process at the time of cancellation.
